IV. Read the following passage and answer the questions set on it :

It is probably in the middle of December 1881; Narendranath went to meet Ramakrishna Paramahamsa. Almost the first thing he did was to ask him a question which he had asked several others. He had asked one question. "Sir, have you seen God? Without a moment's hesitation, the master replied, "Yes I have. I see him as clearly as I see you- only in much intense sense". This meeting of the ancient world and the modern world as well as the dialogue between the East and the West, for Sri Ramakrishna represented the ancient India, where as Narendra represented the modern world.

Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa found the potentialities of young Narendra who won him over his pure and unselfish love with intensity. Narendra became a frequent visitor to Dakshineswar and began to make rapid strides on spiritual path. In July 1884, his father died unexpectedly. Then arrived another calamity that Sri Ramakrishna Paramhamsa was falling ill with cancer of throat. Then the master was shifted to a rented villa at Kossipore on the outskirts of Kolkata. The master instilled in the young men the spirit of brotherly love and affection for one another.

The master passed away in August 1886. His fifteen disciples, under the leadership of Narendra, took vows of Sanyasa assuming new names. Narendra changed his name to 'Vivekananda'. He began to live together in a house at Baranogore at Kolkata. The mortal remains of Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa were presented in the new monastery and centered on it.

There began the worship of Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa. It was from these humble beginnings that Ramakrishna Paramahansa Mutt started, which now has branches all over the world. They have developed in every corner of the world.
