

Report on the Celebration of the 76th Constitution Day at Karnataka Samskrit University, Bengaluru

Karnataka Samskrit University commemorated the 76th Constitution Day with utmost pride, reverence, and academic spirit. The event brought together students, faculty, administrators, and guests in a collective effort to honour the ideals enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. S. Ahalya, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, who presided over the event. Prof. Girish Chandra, Registrar, Smt. Shruthi, KSAS Finance Officer, and Dr. Venkatesha V., Deputy Registrar, were also in attendance and extended their support, highlighting the University's commitment to nurturing constitutional awareness.

The occasion was further enriched by the presence of the Chief Guest, Dr. C. G. Lakshmipathi, Professor, Maharani Cluster University, Bengaluru. His keynote address stood out as a powerful and thought-provoking lecture on Constitutional Values and Social Responsibilities. Dr. Lakshmipathi emphasized the importance of understanding the Constitution not merely as a legal document but as a living guide for responsible citizenship. He underscored the relevance of fundamental duties, democratic conduct, and social harmony in shaping a progressive nation.

In addition to the formal address, several participants reflected on the historical significance of Constitution Day, encouraging students to uphold democratic principles and contribute positively to society. The active engagement of students, teaching and non-teaching staff, and e-teaching faculty added tremendous value to the programme.

A notable highlight of the event was the collective recitation of the Preamble, symbolizing a reaffirmation of commitment to justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. This valedictory act gave a fitting and solemn conclusion to the celebration.

The smooth and successful conduct of the programme was made possible through the coordinated efforts of various University members who worked diligently behind the scenes. Their contribution ensured that the celebration reached a wide audience and left a meaningful impact on the University community.

Overall, the celebration of the 76th Constitution Day at Karnataka Samskrit University was a memorable and intellectually enriching experience, reinforcing the essential values that uphold the spirit of the Indian Constitution.
