

National Voter's Day at Karnataka Samskrit University

Date: 23 January 2026

Karnataka Samskrit University, Bengaluru, observed National Voters' Day on 23rd January 2026 at the university campus with the objective of creating awareness among students about the importance of voting and democratic participation. The programme was organized in alignment with the national initiative to strengthen electoral awareness and encourage responsible citizenship among young voters.

The event was conducted in the presence of university authorities, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students, who participated actively in the observance. The programme emphasized the vital role of the electorate in sustaining democratic values and upholding the constitutional framework of the country.

Prof. V. Girish Chandra, Registrar of Karnataka Samskrit University, addressed the gathering and spoke about the significance of National Voters' Day, which commemorates the foundation of the Election Commission of India. In his address, he highlighted the evolution of India's electoral system and emphasized the responsibility of citizens in ensuring free and fair elections. He encouraged students, particularly first-time voters, to understand the electoral process and actively contribute to the democratic fabric of the nation.

Dean of Various department, Faculty members, Students shared their views on constitutional values, democratic participation, and the importance of awareness regarding electoral rights. Students actively listened to the deliberations and expressed keen interest in understanding their role and responsibility as informed and ethical voters.

The observance of National Voters' Day at Karnataka Samskrit University concluded on a reflective and purposeful note. The programme successfully reinforced awareness about electoral responsibility and democratic values among students and staff, and the university reaffirmed its commitment to nurturing socially conscious and constitutionally aware citizens.