

Report on Celebration of Republic Day at Karnataka Samskrit University

Date: 26/01/2026

Karnataka Samskrit University, Bengaluru, celebrated the Republic Day of India with great patriotic spirit and solemnity on 26 January 2026 at the university campus in Chamrajpet, Bengaluru. The programme was organized to commemorate the historic day on which the Constitution of India came into force and to reaffirm the values of democracy, unity, and national integrity among the university community.

The celebration commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag by Dr. S. Ahalya, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Karnataka Samskrit University, in the presence of Prof. V. Girish Chandra, Registrar of the University. The ceremony was conducted in a dignified manner and was followed by the rendering of the National Anthem, creating an atmosphere of pride and reverence.

The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Venkatesh V, Deputy Registrar, Dr. Paliah, Dean, Dr. Vinay P., Dean, along with the Deans of various departments. Faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students of the university participated in large numbers, reflecting their respect for the nation and enthusiasm for the occasion.

In her address, Dr. S. Ahalya, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, spoke about the historical significance of Republic Day and emphasized that 26 January marks the day when the Constitution of India came into force in 1950. She highlighted the vision and wisdom of the framers of the Constitution and reflected upon India's remarkable journey as a modern democratic nation. She also spoke about the progress and development of contemporary India in various fields and urged students to uphold constitutional values such as justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity in their personal and professional lives.

Following this, Prof. V. Girish Chandra, Registrar of Karnataka Samskrit University, addressed the gathering and spoke about the grand Republic Day parades held in New Delhi and Bengaluru. He highlighted the role of the Indian Armed Forces in safeguarding the nation and explained how the parades symbolically represent India's unity, cultural diversity, and military strength, thereby inspiring national pride among citizens.

The Republic Day celebration was also observed at another campus of Karnataka Samskrit University at Tippasandra, where the occasion was marked with similar patriotic spirit and respect for national values.

The Republic Day celebration concluded on a meaningful and inspiring note, leaving a lasting impression on all those present. The programme successfully reinforced patriotic feelings and constitutional awareness among students and staff, and Karnataka Samskrit University reaffirmed its commitment to nurturing responsible citizens rooted in Indian culture and democratic ideals.
