2021	New courses are welcomed

Year	Feedback received from students
2019	Course content in terms of recent advancements and clarity is required
2019	Adequacy of course content required
2020	Scope for use of innovative teaching methods
2021	Need strong bandwidth connection

Year	Feedback received from alumni
2020	Need for more online courses
2021	Need to attract more students with better infrastructure

Based on the feedback received from parents, the following observations can be made:

In 2019, parents felt that the website could have been improved. This indicates that the school or institution may need to focus on upgrading their website to make it more user-friendly and informative. The university has undertaken rebuilding of the website to address this issue.

Also in 2019, parents highlighted that the infrastructure needs improvement. This suggests that the school or institution may need to invest in upgrading their facilities to provide a better learning environment for students. The university has undertaken multiple infrastructure improvement projects to address this issue.

In 2020, parents suggested that the school or institution should arrange more courses in online mode. This feedback may indicate a need to expand online course offerings, which could potentially improve access and flexibility for students. The university is offering a variety of online courses to work on this feedback.

In 2021, parents welcomed the introduction of new courses. This feedback suggests that the school or institution should continue to develop and expand their course offerings to meet the changing needs and interests of students and parents.

Overall, the feedback from parents highlights the importance of continually assessing and improving the quality of education and services offered by the school or institution.

Based on the feedback received from students, the following observations can be made:

- In 2019, students felt that the course content needed to be improved in terms of recent advancements and clarity. This feedback suggests that the school or institution may need to review and update their curriculum to ensure that it is relevant and up-to-date with the latest developments in the field. The syllabus has been revised continuously to address this feedback.
- Also in 2019, students highlighted that the adequacy of the course content needs to be improved. This may indicate that the school or institution needs to ensure that the curriculum covers all the essential topics and skills required for students to succeed in their chosen field. The portions and units have been increased to address this issue.
- In 2020, students suggested that there is a scope for the use of innovative teaching methods. This feedback may indicate a need for the school or institution to explore and implement new teaching approaches that can enhance student engagement and learning outcomes. The university is using digital modes of learning such as using LMS to address this feedback.
- In 2021, students highlighted the need for a strong bandwidth connection. This feedback suggests that the school or institution needs to ensure that their online learning infrastructure is robust and reliable, and can support high-quality online instruction and learning experiences. The university has instituted a fiber optic internet connection and installed WiFi routers to address this issue.

Overall, the feedback from students underscores the importance of ensuring that the curriculum is relevant, comprehensive, and engaging, and that the school or institution has the necessary infrastructure to support effective teaching and learning.

Based on the feedback received from alumni, the following observations can be made:

- In 2020, alumni highlighted the need for more online courses. This feedback suggests that the school or institution may need to expand their online course offerings to meet the changing needs and preferences of students. The university departments have revised syllabus at appropriate times to accommodate this feedback.
- In 2021, alumni suggested that the school or institution needs to attract more students with better infrastructure. This feedback may indicate a need for the school or institution to invest in upgrading their facilities and resources to provide a more conducive learning environment and attract more students. The university is involved in many outreach programmes in the form of workshops and webinars to work on this feedback.

Overall, the feedback from alumni emphasizes the importance of staying responsive to changing trends and preferences in education, and investing in the necessary resources and infrastructure to support effective teaching and learning.
