7.1.17

The University organizes national festivals and birth / death anniversaries of the great Indian personalities. National festivals are celebrated with pride and patriotic- fervor. The University celebrates the following National festivals

- Republic day
- Independence Day
- Gandhi Jayanthi
- Teacher's day
- Children's day
- Women's day
- Yoga Day

In fact, all days are celebrated in accordance with the Government's norms. The remaining festivals are celebrated in a manner with an aim to sensitize the students of the University about the significance of their life and achievements through speeches delivered by eminent speakers, specially invited for the occasion. The birth and death anniversaries of prominent National leaders as Mahatma Gandhi and Dr.B.R. Ambedkar, are observed and celebrated in the campus.

The University also takes pride in celebrating religious and state level festivals such as Pongal, Basavanna Diwas , Valmiki Jayanti , Diwali and Dusshera, which bind all Indians of different religions, together. The sole aim of celebrating such functions is to instill in them a sense of national faith, integrity and solidarity to safeguard our cultural heritage.
