Locational Advantages & Disadvantages

Karnataka Samskrit University is located in the heart of Benguluru city with easy access to public transportation - Nearest metro station and bus stops are just about 500m from the university. There are many public healthcare systems in the vicinity with the nearest hospital being just under a kilometre.

The university is well-connected to the Kempagowda International Airport making it easy for visiting scholars and dignitaries to visit the university and enrich the experience of students.

There is a public park Makkala Koota in the neighbourhood for recreational activities for the students. Karnataka Samskrita Parishad is right opposite and students get opportunity to avail of the literary activities in the organization to broaden their outlook and engage in complementary activities there. Gayan Samaj is also close by providing rich cultural experience to students.

Several banks such as the Karnataka State Cooperative Bank, Canara Bank, SVC Cooperative bank are very close to the university. The university has hostel facilities for outstation students.

Being in the heart of the market and trading area also results in higher traffic situation. Though the roads are wide and do not cause major traffic inconveniences, trucks for a nearby transport organization get parked outside the university wall which may cause some inconvenience particularly during university events or functions.
